| The map displays the island of East Timor divided into administrative districts. A legend titled 'Tokodede' indicates the percentage of the population that speaks Tokodede as their first language. The percentages are color-coded: light green for < 20%, medium green for 20 - 40%, light blue for 40 - 50%, medium blue for 50 - 60%, dark blue for 60 - 80%, and darkest blue for 90 - 100%. The highest concentration (darkest blue) is found in the westernmost districts, particularly around Dili. Other areas show varying degrees of concentration across the island. | |
